

Shipping boss calls it a day

ISLAND View Shipping, the highly successful shipping division of Durban-based Grindrod Group, says farewell to its chief executive at the end of this month when Tim McClure retires.

McClure became chief executive of Island View Shipping a little more than 10 years ago, after Grindrod acquired the former Tiger Group shipping line.

The acquisition was largely McClure's initiative and he subsequently played a major role in the expansion of the shipping line's activities and its fleet, which in turn had a significant effect on the turnaround and success of the Grindrod Group.

McClure will be succeeded by Martyn Wade, who becomes a member of the executive committee of Grindrod.
